Dumoulin and Sollich North America team up

June 1st, 2006

Sollich North America LLC is pleased to announce their appointment as exclusive agents for Dumoulin in North America. World renowned Ets Dumoulin et Cie located in Tournan en Brie, France, manufacturers of high production automatic panning systems, are excited to be represented by the new Sollich North America agency.

According to Dumoulin's General Manager Francois Adele "We believe that the association with the Sollich group will be a positive advantage to our business and will build on the very successful market position achieved by Sollich's predecessor J Holland Corp."

Dumoulin's panning technology is a remarkable asset to the high volume panned goods producer, their automated pans run 24 hours per day at customer's plants on five continents. Sugar, sugar free & chocolate panning systems are offered. In addition the company also produces a range of machines for the Pharmaceutical industry.
